

Air 1 serves the residents in this area by giving important community service notices, and by providing family friendly radio to the entire area. It is full of useful community calendars, and reports on national and internal news. The music that is played is very uplifting and encouraging. I believe it would be a great failure of the FCC to try and dismiss 88.7 Air 1 station